Fascinating also is that the face of Immunology has changed significantly since '98. This meetup should just be renamed to "The Future".

Published 1998! Actually starting a rotation this week in DNA nanocomputing - modeling of biology as computer systems, so we have bidirectional convergence here: <http://bit.ly/me5TpX> .. I'm focusing on distributed computation and automation (all very related). Awesome - this stuff is what keeps me up at night.
