NYC Chef Hack Day

Past event

Details

Following on the success of the recent Atlanta, San Francisco and Chicago Hack Days, Saturday January 29th will be the first New York-area Chef Hack Day. Opscode will be in full attendance, multiple members from our evangelism team along with members from our core development team will be in town for the event.

What:

Spend a Saturday hacking on Chef. This will be an informative hands on session that should have us all leaving with a real understanding of Chef.

We will have two distinct groups one for experts and one suitable for those who have never used Chef. So for you non developers - get in here too - even if you never use it again having more than a conceptual understanding of this critical layer in the DevOps stack will pay dividends.

Pizza will be provided!

When:

Saturday, January 29th, 2011, from 10:00 am to 7:00 pm.

Where:

Meetup HQ
632 Broadway, 3rd Floor
NY NY 10012

Register:

Although the hack day is free, we ask that you RSVP so we have an idea of how many people to expect:
